PROFILE

I am a versatile and quick-witted designer who puts the necessary time and energy into achieving the ideal result. I am a master of time management. Working within a team environment and the added energy it brings is something I enjoy.

I recognize the need for compromise and will often use humor to diffuse situations. I believe communication is key. Having a history in traditional as well as digital mediums gives me an advantage in the design process.

EXPERIENCE

Engagency 2016–present
Austin, TX

I am responsible for everything from small website changes to entire webpage creation. I also work to create graphic elements for use on our client webpages and other projects.

GulfWebDev 2013–present
New Port Richey, FL

I am mainly responsible for small business website creation from start to finish. I also created graphical elements and motion graphics for use on those websites.

Slow Food First Coast 2014–present
Jacksonville, FL

I am responsible for all things print related. This includes their flagship Tour de Farm event which features a large booklet printed into the thousands. I also create promotional posters and flyers.
